

1 Complete the advertisements below with the comparative form of the adjectives in the box.

fast – high – little – thoroughly – well

a Spot-free
cleans your face .....
than any other cleanser.

b Quik-pix prints your photos .....
than anyone else.

c Sneeze-free
makes you feel .....
in record time.

d Weigh .....
in weeks with Kilo-killer.

e Score ..... in IQ tests with the
IQ-Cube.

2 Complete the second sentence so it means the same as the first. Use one word.

- a He prefers reading to watching television.
He like reading ..... than watching television.
- b Steve is a better footballer than me.
I play football ..... than Steve.
- c There is more rain in Dublin than in Rome.
Dublin is ..... than Rome.
- d Canada is not as warm as Mexico.
Canada is ..... than Mexico.
- e Joe is not as not friendly as Martha.
Martha is ..... than Joe.
- f Jane's favourite subject is Maths.
Jane likes Maths .....

3 Complete the newspaper article with the correct comparative or superlative form of the adjective.

A two-year-old girl from Hampshire is .....
..... (young) ever female member of British Mensa. Georgia Brown's score is ..... (high) than that of many adults.
According to experts Georgia is one of .....
..... (intelligent) children in Britain. You can only join Mensa if your IQ is .....
(great) than 148.

However, some people argue that IQ tests are not
the ..... (good) way to measure intelligence. People who get high scores in standard IQ tests are not necessarily .....
(clever) than others.